Naomi Kewell
Adviser

Naomi is a Chartered Financial Planner (CFP) who provides advisory and paraplanning services to clients of both clarity and clarityTaylorVinters (our joint venture with international law firm, Taylor Vinters). She joined clarity in 2014, with 10 years’ financial services experience, having initially trained as a paraplanner with accountancy firm Grant Thornton.

Along with her CFP status, Naomi is a Fellow of the Personal Finance Society, a chartered member of the Chartered Institute for Securities and Investment, and an Associate Accounting Technician.

In 2018, Naomi was named ‘Paraplanner of the Year’ at the prestigious Money Marketing Awards – a testament to her outstanding technical knowledge and research skills.

Naomi is married with two young daughters, and loves sewing and knitting – particularly clothes for her girls. She is also a big fan of being outdoors, and enjoys gardening, cycling, running and walking.
